

A New Danger.

A great danger threatens the people of the South. An evil that is steadily growing, and unless checked will cause great misery and suffering. Liver Medicines, called by all sorts of names, are being sold to the druggist to be handed to the people when they call for Simmons Liver Regulator. Beware! There never has been more than one Simmons Liver Regulator on the market. Take nothing else. The person who tries to persuade you that anything else is just the same is not to be relied upon, nor is the dealer to be trusted who tries to sell you another article in its stead. You know what Simmons Liver Regulator is, because it has done you good. No; don't be deceived into trying anything else. Wait until the Old Friend, Simmons Liver Regulator, has failed you, then will be time enough to try something else. Remember, Simmons Liver Regulator is what you want. It is put up only by J. H. Zeilin & Co., and a Red Z is on every package.

Husband: "Didn't I tell you that that was a secret, and that you were not to tell anyone?" Wife: "You told me it was a secret, but you did not say I was not to tell any one."

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and, therefore, requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c.

"My boy," said the sage, "always remember that brains will tell." "I differ with you," said the boy. "Brains won't tell." "If brains told, all the world would be in the secret, and brains wouldn't be worth a rap." Wherein the boy showed himself wiser than the sage.

Croup is a terror to young mothers. To post them concerning the first symptoms, and treatment is the object of this item. The first indication of croup is hoarseness. In a child who is subject to croup it may be taken as a sure sign of the approach of an attack. Following this hoarseness is a peculiar, rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even after the rough cough has appeared it will prevent the attack. It has never been known to fail. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by A. F. Hargrave.

TWO LIVES SAVED.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors that she had Consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thos. Eggers, 139 Florida St., San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching Consumption, tried without result everything else and then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that proves the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in Coughs and Colds. Free trial bottles at A. F. Hargrave's Drug Store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00.

PREPARING FOR COLD WEATHER.

It is strange how some people will do everything in their power to prepare for cold weather, except to prepare for the cold which always comes with the weather. Half our physical woes come from thinking too lightly of a cold. As if anybody ever had a cold that was not a "bad cold." If people could only realize that a cough is a danger signal, how much suffering and trouble would be avoided. No one is prepared for the winter who has not provided himself with a bottle of cough syrup. "Dr. David's" is the best; it succeeds where others fail. For sale by A. F. Hargrave.

HIS 300 ANXIOUS WIVES.

There is a certain village in the Midlands, says London Truth where the illness of the Ameer of Afghanistan has been followed with painful anxiety. The reason is to be found in the following curious, but I believe, perfectly authentic story: Some years ago an enterprising young tailor left the village in question, and went abroad to seek his fortune. He eventually found his way to Cabul. Here great luck awaited him. He obtained the patronage of royalty and became the Poole of Afghanistan. He had left a sweetheart behind in England, and as soon as he found himself on the road to fortune, he sent for the damsel to join him. She came, but here fortune deserted the tailor. His intended bride, in her turn obtained the patronage of royalty, with the result that she eventually became one of the 300 wives of Abdurrahman.

This, however, is only the first act of the tragedy. It is understood that, by the laws of Afghanistan, when the Ameer dies, the whole of his 300 wives must be shot. The laws of the Afghans are as immutable as those of their ancient neighbors, the Medes and Persians, and the whole of the little Midland village, where the Ameer's English wife was born and where her parents are still living has been during the past week or two in a state of excitement over the possible fate of the young lady. Fortunately, the Ameer seems better now, and it is to be hoped, if only for the sake of his wives, whatever their nationality, that the improvement will continue. In the meantime, cannot diplomacy do anything for the young woman? At his time of life, and with a gony habit to boot, I should have thought Abdurrahman might have been induced to get along with 299 of them. If, however, he must have a round number, in the family circle, perhaps an exchange might be negotiated.

A young couple were getting married. Suddenly some absurd idea entered the head of the bridegroom, and he burst out laughing.
